

Italy - Agriturismo Cretaiole

<https://www.theisabellaexperience.com/cretaiole-tuscany/>

Between two of the greatest wine regions in Tuscany lies the magnificent Agriturismo Cretaiole property. A restored medieval Tuscan farmhouse, the beautiful property has been an Italian oasis to visitors near and far. The beautiful apartment-style rooms can accommodate groups of up to 7 people, and they promise an unforgettable experience that will go down as one of your best vacations ever. From pasta making classes right there on the property to sit-down family-style dinners nightly, Agriturismo offers the kind of Italian experience you only read about in books.

In an area famous for its exceptional wine, Pecorino di Pienza cheese, and Tuscan cuisine — visitors come to experience the simple life. The friendly hill community opens its arms to guests in excitement, ready to share the history and culture that has made Tuscany a must-see destination. The property itself is owned by the Moricciani family, who invite you to follow them through guided tours and indulge in olive oil and wine tastings and immerse yourself in the Italian life. Relaxation, adventure, and fine dining are what set this incredible property and it's surrounding areas apart.

When you're ready to get up to something new, head off of the property and explore the stunning hills of Italy's most popular wine regions.

- Taste world-class wines at Brunello di Montalcino and Vino Nobile di Montepulciano
- Visit San Quirico Brewery
- Relax at local spas and hot springs
- Horseback riding, golf, and tennis opportunities
- Mountain biking and hiking
- Explore centuries-old Monte Oliveto Maggiore and Sant'Anna in Camprena monastery
- Visit the fortresses of Montalcino and Radicofani

Italy is lush with greenery and plenty of historical places to wander and explore. Whether you've come from the food and wine or want truly want to embrace the spirit of Tuscany, you can do it all at Agriturismo Cretaiole.

Property Accolades:

- 2014 Certificate of Excellence Winner - TripAdvisor
- Recommended by Friends of Rick Steves in Tuscany
- 2015 Best of Florence & Tuscany - Rick Steves